

Financial Assistance Application

Mill Mountain Theatre
1 Market Sq. SE, 2nd Floor
Roanoke, VA 24011
millmountain.org

Mill Mountain Theatre makes effort to share the magic of theatre with all students. Through our “Share the Magic” fund, which is supported through donations and grants from community members, corporations, and foundations, we are able to provide financial assistance to families who need support in paying for Conservatory classes. Assistance is awarded on the basis of financial need and the amount of support will vary based on family circumstances and Mill Mountain Theatre’s available funds.

All recipients agree to:

- Pay the balance of tuition as determined by the Financial Aid Committee
- Attend classes regularly
- Maintain assignments
- Participate in all class performances
- Write a thank you note near the end of the term that includes (appropriate to the age of student) what taking the class meant to you, what you learned, how you have grown through your participation in Mill Mountain Theatre classes, how being involved in theatre has helped you in school, or any other comment that might apply.
