A Chorus Line

Music by Marvin Hamlisch, Lyrics by Edward Kleban, and Book by James Kirkwood, Jr. and Nicholas Dante

April 25 – May 13

Hopeful, heartbreaking and hilarious, A Chorus Line tells the personal stories of 17 dancers auditioning for 8 spots in the chorus of a new Broadway show. Through song and dance they describe the families, jobs, and tough times that shaped their lives and careers. Unforgettable songs by Marvin Hamlisch include "What I Did For Love," "At The Ballet," and the joyous finale, "One."

Rated: PG for Mature Language

West Side Story

Music by Leonard Bernstein, Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, and Book by Arthur Laurents

October 3 – October 21

Based on Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, this classic follows warring families of teenaged gangs and star-crossed lovers, desperate for somewhere to be together forever. The romantic and violent story is told through choreography based on the Jerome Robbins original Tony Award-winning dances, with the music of Leonard Bernstein and the words of then beginner Stephen Sondheim. Since its Broadway debut 60 years ago, it has remained a shining example of the best of this truly American art form. This production of West Side Story is MMT's contribution to the global celebration of composer Leonard Bernstein's centennial.

An Evening With Andrew Lloyd Webber

June 1 – June 2

7:30 pm

Over the past 50 years, much of the most memorable theatre music has been the creation of English composer and impresario, Andrew Lloyd Webber. Knighted by the Queen in 1992 for his service to music, Lloyd Webber composed The Phantom of the Opera, Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita, Cats, the recent School of Rock, and many others. MMT's intimate concert format encourages you to hum along to your favorites.

June 1-2

Shrek The Musical – TYA Version

Music by Jeanine Tesori, Book & Lyrics by David Lindsay-Abaire.

August 1 – August 12

Once upon a time, as all fairytales begin, there lived an ogre named Shrek. His swamp was invaded by castoff characters from other fairytales. To reclaim the swamp, Shrek must rescue a princess and in the process, he falls in love with her. Adapted from the animated feature film, this one-hour Theatre for Young Audiences adaptation will be cast with talented local children and teens, many from our MMT Conservatory program. In conjunction with this production, MMT will distribute free books to student audience members, as part of our initiative connecting theatre to literacy.

The Christmas Cup

By Nancy Ruth Patterson

December 5 – December 23

The love between a young girl and her wise grandmother is brought to life on stage from the pages of a story by Nancy Ruth Patterson, Roanoke's beloved author and educator. The story revolves around a beat up old milkshake cup where Megan collects a year's worth of scrimped money. Her meager savings and the anonymous gift she buys with them are a metaphor for this season of love and generosity.

A Taste of Country

August 24 – August 25

7:30 pm

We live in the birthplace of country music and all grew up with those songs and singers – from Johnny Cash, Patsy Cline, and Dolly Parton to Brad Paisley, Carrie Underwood and Alan Jackson. MMT invites you to savor a taste of the rich history of our nation's authentic soundtrack in an evening of trucks, dogs, the open road and love – lost and found.

August 24-25

All Preview nights for A Chorus Line and West Side Story have tickets for $25 each, any seat in the house!
